

Managing Cercospora and Other Diseases of Leafy Greens

Ann Hazelrigg
Plant Diagnostic Clinic
Hills Building, 105 Carrigan Drive
University of Vermont
Burlington, VT 05405

Synopsis: We will cover the basics of how fungal diseases work, what cultural practices can be used to help manage the most common disease problems including Cercospora, downy mildew and root rots. We will also address some of the fungicides that can be used for these diseases.